FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DO THE SIDE HUSTLE – Award Winning Money Matters Seminars in February

Ft Collins, CO, Wednesday Jan 30, 2019 — Empower your full earning potential with a Side Hustle, a way to make money outside of your nine-to-five grind. This seminar will cover a variety of Side Hustle options that can bring in more cash for the short term, or possibly become your new entrepreneurial business!

Collaborating with local libraries, the Rocky Mountain Chapter of Credit Unions in Northern Colorado hosts Money Matters – an Award Winning Financial Literacy Seminar Series at local libraries. The monthly seminars are free and open to the public at libraries in Fort Collins, Loveland, Evans, Windsor, Louisville, Firestone, and Erie.

Local professionals and experts present on valuable topics such as Budgeting & Saving, Long-Term Care Planning, and more. The evening workshops are designed to help consumers learn how to be savvy with their money and improve their skills when using credit.

###

Local credit unions in Northern Colorado are focused on providing individuals in the community Financial Literacy, Support & Awareness, Sustainability, and Advocacy in legislative affairs.

Credit unions are not-for-profit financial cooperatives based on the deep-rooted philosophies of People Helping People and the four basic principles:

- Democratic governance;
- Each member has one vote, regardless of the size of the member's deposits;
- Member-elected board of directors; and
- Volunteer based.

About the Rocky Mountain Chapter of Credit Unions:

The Rocky Mountain Chapter of Credit Unions is comprised of eight credit unions in Northern Colorado in Boulder, Larimer and Weld Counties. While they operate separately to serve their members, they join together to help our community.

Participating Credit Unions: Canvas Credit Union, Blue Federal Credit Union, Elevations CU, Premier Members FCU, Northern Colorado CU, Colorado CU, Foothills CU, and Ent CU.
